As part of their US special interest range Theme Publications will be launching JAZZ & BLUES USA a 200page guide to over 1000 live state by state venues and festivals. There are extended sections for the premier cities New Orleans, New York and Chicago with top spot reviews, major festivals plus tours, radio stations and specialist music stores. Museums and archives are also included and along with useful general information most entries have on and offline contact detail.

For enthusiasts, travel, media or industry professionals and event planners it will be available from the publisher by mail worldwide through a US online retailer at www.buffguides.com fall 2005.
