As part of their US special interest range Theme Publications will be launching MOVIE USA a 200page guide to over 1400 movie related places and events. Included are the most popular film locations and film festivals state by state plus extended sections covering Hollywood and New York's famous studios, tours, historical sights, stars homes, haunts and other popular movie places. Along with plenty of useful general information most entries have on and offline contact detail.

For enthusiasts, travel, media or industry professionals and event planners it will be available from the publisher by mail worldwide through a US online retailer at www.buffguides.com fall 2005.
